Wallace H. Coulter School of Engineering Department of Mechanical and Aeronautical Engineering

Two Tenure Track Faculty Positions

Mechanical and Aeronautical Engineering (MAE) Department of the Wallace H. Coulter School of Engineering (CSoE) at Clarkson University invites applications for two tenure track positions at the Assistant Professor rank (anticipated starting date: August 2012). A Ph.D. or in the process of completing a Ph.D. in Mechanical Engineering, Aeronautical/Aerospace Engineering or related field is required. Applications are encouraged from individuals whose research programs can contribute to areas of: (1) Solid Mechanics/Materials, (2) Thermal Sciences, (3) Bioengineering and/or (4) Renewable/Sustainable Energy Systems including Solar and Nuclear Energy, which are within the interdisciplinary focus areas of the department/school/university.

Clarkson's MAE Department offers B.S. degrees in Mechanical Engineering and Aeronautical Engineering, and M.E., M.S. and Ph.D. degrees in Mechanical Engineering. Successful candidates will be expected to teach fundamental undergraduate and graduate courses in mechanical/aeronautical engineering, and develop strong funded research programs. Applicants need to articulate a clear and substantiated vision of how their background can lead to sustained accomplishments through teaching, research, and an ability to engage in interdisciplinary activities and projects within one of the focus areas identified above. Clarkson University is committed to providing an educational experience in which students develop an appreciation for diversity in both working and living environments.

To submit your application, go to www.clarkson.edu/hr and click “Career Opportunities” on the left hand navigation bar. Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.

Additional information about the MAE Department and the Coulter School of Engineering can be found at www.clarkson.edu. Clarkson University has one of the highest percentages of women engineering faculty in the nation (ASEE 2005 profiles of Engineering Colleges).

An equal opportunity/affirmative action employer, Clarkson University actively seeks and encourages applications from minorities, women, people with disabilities and veterans.
